TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER Takeover of Axminster Carpets

AXMINSTER Carpets has been taken over by H Dawson Wool, an international wool merchant based in Bradford.

It was announced last Thursday afternoon that H Dawson Wool had acquired a controlling equity stake in Axminster Carpets.

The Axminster company has undergone a period of significant change during the last three years, and the provision of additional support from H Dawson, increased financial resource and further strengthening of the Axminster Carpets senior management team will take the company on the next phase of its journey.

H Dawson Wool, established in 1888, has for many years been an important supplier to the wool carpet manufacturing sector in the UK and throughout the world.

Royal Warrant holder Axminster Carpets, founded originally by Thomas Whitty in 1755, has operated from its current site in Axminster since 1937 when the late Harry Dutfield revived the town's carpet-making tradition.

The company refused to be drawn on questions about job security, the Dutfield family's continued involvement with the business and claims the company has, or is in the process of, selling off land it owns in Axminster.

From the editor's chair Another twist in carpets' future

THE news last week that Axminster Carpets has been taken over by a highly respected firm of international wool merchants will be seen as a positive move, especially by the workforce.

H Dawson Wool, based in Bradford, have acquired a controlling interest in the Axminster operation and have stated they are "excited about the future growth aspirations for the business."

Those employed at the carpet factory - greatly reduced in numbers following the collapse of the previous family-run company three years ago - will take some comfort in that statement that they still have a future.

Whenever companies are sold the rumour mill goes into overdrive. We have tried to ascertain what impact the change of ownership will have on the future for the staff and whether the Dutfield family will retain an interest in the new set-up.

The new owners, whose history goes back to 1888, will not be publicly drawn on such matters at this moment, other than to state reassuringly that the focus on the new operation is on "growth". There is also a rumour circulating that some of the land owned by the carpet factory will be sold off for a supermarket but again we have not been able to confirm this.

The name of one supermarket in particular has been bandied around but they have categorically denied that they are opening a new store in Axminster.

The past few years have been very challenging for the carpet manufacturing industry but H Dawson, a world leader in their field, has invested significantly in the future of the under pressure sector by this acquisition.

We can only hope that "An Axminster from Axminster" will remain synonymous with all that is finest in the craft of carpet making and that the town's link with the industry continues for many years.

In welcoming H Dawson to Axminster, we should not forget what Harry Dutfield did for the town in reviving the industry that put Axminster on the world map.

SOUTH SOMERSET Council tax to go up after funding cuts

SOUTH Somerset District Council (SSDC) wants to increase its portion of council tax by 1.95 per cent, which amounts to an extra £2.88 a year for the average a Band D household.

Councillors have been recommended to approve the proposal. A decision will be taken during a budget meeting on Thursday, February 25th.

It was explained that the government has reduced the support grant it gives to councils, and will take away the grant completely by 2020.

For SSDC this means a cut of more than £1million this year and by 2019/20, total savings of £4.1million will be required, including an additional penalty of £330,000 having to be handed back to central government.

Efficiency improvements have meant that SSDC's spending has fallen significantly.

In 2008/09 the annual budget was £19.7million and the proposed 2016/17 budget is just £17.3million. This represents a cut of 28 per cent after inflation.

OTTERY & SIDMOUTH School crossing patrols in doubt

SCHOOL crossing patrols have been thrown into doubt after Devon County Council (DCC) announced plans to cut the service to save £250,000 a year.

At a DCC cabinet meeting, members announced cuts of £26million to the budget which included scrapping lollipop controls. At the same time DCC have announced a rise of 3.99 per cent in council tax for 2016/17.

Devon County Councillor for Sidford and Sidmouth, Stuart Hughes, said: "School crossing patrols can be paid for by the school or the community and it is therefore an area where we can make savings. Although this model would require schools to pay some of the costs, the county council would remain committed to supporting a crossing patrol service by providing training and quality assurance to ensure it is delivered safely."

HONITON Nine immigrants found in lorry

A DRAMATIC incident unfolded in Honiton last week after nine people were arrested on suspicion of entering the UK illegally.

On Wednesday, Honiton Police received a report from a business on Heathpark Industrial Estate, who said a delivery driver suspected people were inside his vehicle's container. The driver had arrived in the UK via Dover a few hours before.

A police spokesman said: "Seven adults and two youths were found. Those arrested are believed to originate from Eritrea in East Africa."

COLYTON County slammed over road repairs

THE quality of highways and drainage works carried out in Colyton by Devon County Council has been slammed by parish councillors.

Councillors criticised the county council as Ridgeway Lane in Colyton continued to flood after drainage works were carried out in the area.

At this month's parish council meeting, Councillor John Hay raised the subject with county councillor Sara Randall-Johnson, commenting: "The Ridgeway flood alleviation scheme doesn't work. It's flooded six times at least."

Councillor Randall-Johnson said: "We're simply not getting the money from central government.

SEATON & BEER Beer Brook pollution getting worse

SEATON residents say that action promised over Beer Brook has not happened, that pollution is getting worse and it poses a health risk.

The Environment Agency (EA), however, says work is ongoing to address the problem.

West Seaton and Seaton Hole Association issued a statement last Thursday, saying: "Last evening residents living alongside the brook (near Old Beer Road) witnessed the worst pollution we have seen for many years. The brook was covered in dirty foam and smelt very badly."

"We think the incident room at the Environment Agency (EA) must have been clogged up with callers reporting the pollution last evening."

They allege that the problem is caused by slurry from Gatcombe Farm, who declined to comment.

Council to make 'significant' investment into business hub

A BUSINESS hub is set to raise aspiration and break a negative cycle in Chard.

District councillors voted unanimously to let the project continue to the next phase. They acknowledged there was a risk involved, but says it is time to create demand for office space in the town.

The idea is to create what is known as a "business incubation hub" across two empty floors at South Somerset District Council's Holyrood Lace Mill in the centre of Chard.

The hub will provide low-cost office space and business support for new business start-ups, local businesses and businesses relocating into the area. It will be open to all-comers and will particularly encourage digital and media business.

A report prepared for the district council's Area West Committee said: "Research shows that there is a shortage of office premises in Chard and suggests that, as rental values are low, developers do not have the confidence to invest and build new premises, because returns are likely to be low and there is little evidence of demand.

"This is cyclic: no premises mean no demand, so none are built. To break this cycle we need someone to take a risk and invest to demonstrate that there is demand."

Area West members voted unanimously to take the project to the next phase.

The total cost of the project is not known, but will be what SSDC calls "significant".

The report explained: "It will require significant investment of public funds and further work is required to define important details and more accurately quantify costs and plan the project.

"At this stage the Area West Development Team seek confirmation that the additional investment in time and effort to develop this level of detail is supported by members, and also that a project board be set up to oversee the work."

They now have that confirmation and can get on with the job of raising aspirations.

The report continued: "Chard has a reputation as having low aspiration, low pay and few opportunities for advancement.

"A business hub would help to create new opportunities and support people with aspirations to achieve.

"Chard is poorly represented online and it appears (from online research) that uptake of digital marketing and services is low in Chard.

"A business hub with strength in digital services would support Chard to adopt modern promotional and marketing techniques and working practices."

The matter is not a new one but previous attempts have never taken off.

In 2006 a proposal was developed for the Chard Enviro-Centre, aiming at a £3million EU-funded development of office and light industrial units in a purpose-built, environmentally friendly building.

In 2010 Chard Regeneration Framework identified the need for a new incubation workspace in the town centre.

The report stated: "There have been various discussions to try to attract investors to set up an incubation space in Chard but as yet none have come forward.

"A recent study - commissioned by SSDC and carried out by property specialists Thomas Lister - suggests that this investment is unlikely to come from private investors because there is no guarantee of a return.

"To address the long-term demand SSDC Area West Development has developed the Chard Business Hub project. The project addresses market failure by setting out to demonstrate demand.

"The hub will provide networking for local businesses and support community groups and projects to help its clients develop their skills, promote their services and build relationships.

"The success of the hub will build confidence, raise perceptions of Chard and attract investment."

Extra funding secured for county

AN extra £2.9million of national government funding has been secured for Somerset County Council for 2016/17, plus £2million in 2017/18.

The council feared having to make £8million of savings from its annual budget this year to balance its books as required by law, under a provisional Local Government Settlement announced at the end of last year.

South Somerset District Council also looks set to receive almost £200,000 more for its budget because of an intervention by local MP Marcus Fysh and other Somerset MPs.

Mr Fysh said: While there will still need to be savings to help deal with the national budget deficit, I am happy to have obtained these substantial improvements for Somerset's councils that will help smooth the transition to keeping all of the business rates that are paid locally.

"That is the main way that local government will be funded in the future, alongside council tax.

"Councils which grow their business tax base, hopefully by encouraging business with discounts and capitalising on the major infrastructure investments that we will be making in the coming years, should have strong revenue streams to fund good quality local services."

In November the Chancellor George Osborne announced that local government would be able to retain business rates locally, a reform that Mr Fysh had been pushing for since being elected last May, and in Secretary of State Greg Clark's statement to the House of Commons on Monday it was announced that councils will be able to accelerate that process by engaging in devolution bids such as those currently being proposed by Somerset's councils.

An urgent technical review of rural needs versus those of urban areas was also announced on Monday, so as properly to inform that process for sparse rural areas such as Somerset.

Mr Fysh added: "I thank Secretary of State Greg Clark and the Chancellor for listening, and look forward to working with them further to help our councils retain business rates locally as soon as possible and address the rural operational challenges.

"This is a great opportunity for local people to take control and be more responsible for local services, at the same time as addressing the problem of business rates being too high in many areas."

Funding bid for swimming pool unsuccessful

A BID for funding from Sport England to help in the refurbishment of the swimming pool at the Cresta Leisure Centre in Chard has been unsuccessful, says Somerset County Council.

Councillor Nigel Pearson, who represents Chard at County Hall, said last Monday during a meeting of Chard Town Council that the cost to bring the pool - which has been beset with problems in recent years - would be around £1million.

It has now been confirmed by the county council that the pool is on its last legs.

"A condition survey for the swimming pool at Cresta Leisure Centre has been produced and shows significant financial investment will be needed as the facility is nearing the end of its functional life," said a spokesman.

"In the past, Somerset County Council has carried out repairs as and when required but significant funding is needed now if the pool is to remain in use. As a result, we must explore all options for its future."

The council is now looking at all possibilities about the pool's future - although it has been left thwarted in a bid to get funds from Sport England to help in a total refurbishment of the facilities.

"Unfortunately a recent bid to Sport England for the necessary funding was unsuccessful, so a report will be going to an upcoming Cabinet meeting asking for a decision on the pools future," added the County Hall spokesman.

"Possible options that Cabinet will discuss include whether the pool can be transferred to another owner as a community asset, while council officers will continue to investigate other revenue avenues available."

Councillor Pearson told town councillors last week that another option would be to close the pool altogether.

Although the county council owns the Cresta pool, it is run and managed by the 1610 leisure trust organisation.

Changes to Key Site development given thumbs up

DISTRICT councillors have agreed in principle to significant changes to a major development at Crewkerne Key Site.

Outline planning permission had already been given for a mixed use development of 525 dwellings, employment land, a primary school and a raft of other facilities at Crewkerne Key Site, which is on land between the A30 and A356.

That permission was given to Taylor Wimpey in 2011, but not much has happened since because the applicant says the approved scheme is unviable in the current market.

As a result, the company applied for outline approval for up to 110 dwellings and a 60-bed care home on the 10 hectares employment land approved off Station Road, retaining 3.74 hectares of employment land.

The company also applied to lift or reduce a number of conditions that came with the original approval.

A report prepared for South Somerset District Council's Area West Committee stated: "It is contended that the previously agreed obligations, along with further obligations sought in relation to the current proposal and unexpected archaeological costs, are unaffordable.

"The applicant has therefore requested that the council reconsiders the planning obligations."

Crewkerne Town Council opposed the new ideas, saying the provision of adequate employment land is vital to maintain Crewkerne as a vibrant, sustainable community.

The Area West Committee met on Wednesday, February 17th, and members were recommended to approve the applications.

The planning department's report said: "It is considered that the benefits of the proposal in terms of delivering housing, infrastructure improvements, the jobs that would be created in the construction phases and by the economic activity of future residents outweighs the limited harms identified.

"Furthermore there are considered to be material circumstances that justify approving this development contrary to local plan policy."

The applications were approved. The approved packages include 50 affordable houses (about 8.25 per cent of the total), at social rent to be delivered in the first phase of development.

The full report and background is available online at <http://goo.gl/X7zHLE>

Council urged to address lack of sporting facilities in Chard

AN URGENT call is being made for council bosses to "sit up, take notice and make plans" to sort out the ever-worsening lack of sporting facilities in Chard.

Councillor Amanda Broom will be calling on her district council colleagues to support her in a motion to set out a strategy for improving sporting development in the town.

"It is felt by the people of Chard that there has been a lack of support for sporting facilities in the town for far too long," she said. "We are short of playing pitches and desperately need more to meet the demand there is in Chard."

Councillor Broom has highlighted a list of current problems in Chard which is blighting the town's sporting activities.

"Our hockey team is currently playing outside of Chard due to the condition of its hockey pitch and the Cresta swimmingpool is being reported as potentially closing," she said.

"Chard Town FC are under threat of being kicked out of their current league due to the sloping pitch at their Zembard Lane ground and local footballers in the Perry Street League are using portable huts as changing rooms, which have only just been secured through the town council, having previously seen players walk through the town from changing rooms elsewhere to matches at Jocelyn Park.

"There are enough people registered to play in football teams living in Chard for another ten teams and yet they are playing outside of the town – and that doesn't include women's football – while Chard Rugby Club has more players interested in playing than they have pitches to cater for them.

"I could go on – this is just the starting point."

Councillor Broom, who became a member of Chard Town Council and South Somerset District Council at last year's local elections, added: "Chard needs to have a cohesive plan which is supported by the key stakeholders and one that we can all work towards seeing actual results delivered to the town.

"This is one of the main reasons that I became involved in standing as a councillor."

Councillor Broom's motion will go before South Somerset District Council at its full meeting on Thursday, February 25th and ask council officers to prepare a report on the "future plan for sporting facilities and sporting development within Chard" and to set out a strategy on how to deliver the plan.

Crews called to deal with tea towel on fire

FIREFIGHTERS rushed to deal with a burning tea towel in Chard.

The emergency occurred in a property in Reed Close at about 1.45pm on Monday, February 15th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The caller reported a tea towel on fire in the kitchen. Safety advice was given to evacuate the property as fire appliances were mobilised.

"Fire appliances from Chard, Ilminster and Axminster were mobilised. On arrival of the first appliance from Chard, the officer in charge confirmed no further appliances were necessary.

"Fire crews removed the tea towel to open air and gave advice on ventilating the property."

Chimney fire extinguished

FIREFIGHTERS had to deal with a chimney fire at a property in Chard last Wednesday, February 3rd.

They were called out to a home in Hillside at just after 7.15pm and they got to work to put the fire out using chimney gear and a thermal imaging camera.

A Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service spokesman said: "Crews also carried out an inspection of the loft space to check for any fire spread."

Carnival club to host bingo

THE Chard-based ZEM Carnival Club will hold its annual prize bingo on Saturday, February 27th at Crowshute Centre.

Doors open at 6.30pm, with eyes down at 7.15pm. There will be three prizes per house, a raffle and refreshments.

■ NEW INFLUENCE: Students learn about foreign music

Pupils learn about music from other side of world

ALL students at Holyrood Academy in Chard have had the opportunity to learn about music from the other side of the world through Javanese Gamelan workshops.

All students were able to have a go during their regular music lessons when they learnt about the traditions of Javanese Gamelan music and got the chance to create and perform an original composition of their own.

Nick Brace and staff from Actiontrack Performance Arts company brought a huge selection of instruments to create a mallet orchestra at Holyrood and students enjoyed learning about the fundamentals of Gamelan music and participating in the creation of their own tunes.

Mr Andrew Gilham, head of music, said: "This was a wonderful opportunity for our students to get hands on experience with an entirely different set of instruments.

"As well as being highly educational, the sessions allowed everyone to achieve an impressive standard of music making in an incredibly short time frame, giving students a great sense of achievement."

Still undecided about where to study in September?

Places available at The Woodroffe School Sixth Form

More and more students from schools other than Woodroffe now choose to come here

Demelza

I have loved being Head Girl at Woodroffe. It is such a high spirited and warm environment to be part of. Sixth Form staff and teachers challenge me in lessons and encourage me to aspire and grasp opportunities.

George

Woodroffe Sixth Form provides me with everything I need; a friendly, fun atmosphere and an environment where I'm challenged and encouraged to work hard and apply my knowledge.

Curtis

I came to Woodroffe from elsewhere and struggled to keep up with my A levels but with the help of Mrs Cropp, the Sixth Form librarian, I'm managing quite well. The students made me welcome and the social life is great.

Caitlin

Having aspired to come to Woodroffe for Sixth Form, I decided to stay at my previous school. After three days in the Sixth Form there I knew it wasn't for me and made the decision to start at Woodroffe. I was welcomed with open arms by students and staff and quickly became involved. Youngsters steal the show in Combe

PANTOMIME REVIEW By Lesley Cole

THE two stars of Cloverleaf Productions' recent presentation of "The Snow Queen", in Combe St Nicholas, were 11-year-old Sienna Lanfear and Nell Wallbridge, aged 12.

They took principal roles as Gerda and Kai in Alan Frayn's pantomime version of the traditional fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen, which was directed by Ros Roderigo with musical direction from Dave Goodall and David Stares.

Both youngsters were word perfect throughout, winning acclaim from both audiences and other cast members.

Bob Dunn, chairman of Cloverleaf Productions, said: "I must admit that had my doubts when the parts were cast, but Sienna and Nell proved me totally wrong, putting in stupendous performances every night."

In this version of the fairy tale, Hans Christian Andersen (John Attree) tells the story of the Ugly Duckling to the Danish townsfolk, with the character of the birds being charmingly brought to life by Ruby Nex. As the townsfolk demand more, Hans decides to let them hear his new tale – The Snow Queen – and incorporates the locals into his story.

When Kai is captured by the Snow Queen, Gerda sets out to find him, followed anxiously by her grandmother Granny Fannie Annie (Dave Goodall) and comical cousin Helmut, played by Bob Dunn. We follow their adventures as they visit the Spring Flower Garden, the Summer of Love and the Autumn Forest on their way to the Kingdom of Ice.

Sally Nex was icily wicked as the Snow Queen with her wacky henchman Henrik being played by Clive Smith. Counteracting her evil was the good fairy, Snowdrop (Helen Rose).

Blossom, the slightly mad flower lady with all the lovely sunflowers, was Maggy Goodall with Richard Roderigo camping it up as Precious. The hippies were way out, man. Led by Michelle Wallbridge as Princess Sunbeam, they gave us an atmospheric version of "Hare Krishna" and David Stares, as ageing hippy Ziggy, led the audience in a splendid rendition of "All You Need is Love".

Richard Roderigo appeared again a few scenes later as the Robber Chief, with Robber Girl Frederika (Debbie Smith) threatening to end the tale early by doing away with Gerda.

On finally reaching the Arctic Circle Gerda meets the wise Old Lapp Lady (Louise Knight) and collects the last item needed to rescue Kai.

Add a talking reindeer (Martin Wale); Caw, a wordy raven who lived in a "acawn tree round the cawner", convincingly played by David Stares; lots of great music; wonderful colourful sets painted by John Attree; an amazing array of costumes by Lesley Cole; superb lighting and sound plus a lively chorus kept on their toes by many costume changes, and you had a family panto filled with fun and frolics.

Cloverleaf pantomimes are renowned in the area for the quality of their performances and "The Snow Queen" played to packed houses throughout the run, with audiences describing it as "the best yet".

Museum to open Court Room to public

FOLLOWING recent open day successes, Chard and District Museum is arranging another open day for the Court Room – the grade I listed building at 7-9 Fore Street.

The Court Room was last opened in the summer on Chard Festival Day and attracted hundreds of visitors.

A repeat, along with talks from the historic building consultants, has been organised for Saturday, March 19th.

A museum spokesperson said: "Please come along from 2pm until 5pm and meet at Chard Guildhall before heading across the road for a tour and talk in the Court Room.

"Each tour lasts around half an hour and you can also see a photographic exhibition of old Chard and artefacts from the museum in a 'guess what the items are' table – this will be in the Guildhall Foyer.

"Meeting times are every half an hour from 2pm until 5pm."

District councillor Amanda Broom, Chard Combe Ward, helps to promote these events, and commented: "This will be another fantastic day in Chard being supported by the museum volunteers again, and another opportunity to visit the Court Room.

"Followed by Chard's Earth Hour, which is being arranged by Tim Eggins of Sustainable Chard, it will be a great day for all things Chard."

For more details on the Court Room tours, contact Gwyneth Jackson on 01460 66278.

They did so by sponsoring t-shirts and tabards, which will be worn by all volunteers when working on hospice fundraising duty.

■ TWINNERS: There were cakes aplenty at the coffee morning

Twinning association attracts full house for coffee morning

CREWKERNE Twinning Association's recent coffee morning attracted a full house upstairs in the museum.

Held on Saturday, February 13th, the event was an opportunity for members to mingle and make plans for the forthcoming trip to Igny and Bures Sur Yvette in France.

Association chairman Cheryl Newman said: "A very busy coffee morning was held. We thank the museum very much for the use of the upstairs room.

"We now have 48 people travelling to France with us on April 1st for the 40th anniversary celebrations."

"We are very grateful to the town council for funding this year of £500 and to Waitrose green tokens scheme.

"Our fundraising all will go towards the anniversary celebrations both in France and in Crewkerne in June.

"Our next event is a quiz night on March 12th from 7.30 pm in Misterton WI Hall, with teams of four."

Misterton war veteran receives French Legion d'honneur medal

TONY Wills from Misterton was one of two former Dorset soldiers who have been awarded the French Legion d'honneur medal in recognition of their role in the liberty of the country in World War Two.

Mr Wills was presented with the award, along with Ron Beale from Portland, by the French Consul Madame Josette Lebrat, who said: "Today you are made Knights of the Legion of Honour. You are the heroes of the Second World War, modern knights, we honour you.

"We also remember your friends, those who did not make it back. Thorough you and through this ceremony we honour their sacrifice and their courage. It is through the courage of men and women like you that our parents across the channel were able to regain their freedom.

"On behalf of the French Republic and on behalf of our parents, I would like to say a warm thank you. Merci."

Mr Wills was born in Misterton in 1925 and joined the Dorset Regiment in 1943. He was enlisted with the 5th Dorsets and saw service with them through Normandy including at Hill 112 and Maltot.

"It's a great honour to me," he said on receiving the French Legion d'honneur medal.

"You think more of your colleagues. I had the privilege of serving with some of the finest men you could ever have and that's what gets me. I get very emotional when I think about them."

Mr Beale, aged 94, was born in Christchurch. He arrived in Normandy with the 4th Dorsets in June 1944.

In August, the same day his best man was killed, Ron was hit by a machine gun round and collapsed in a corn field.

He commented: "I felt alone and frightened then. I couldn't see anything but I could hear colleagues firing away in the distance. In the tall cornfields the wounded, who were unable to move, could get lost or crushed by a tank or gun carrier."

He was spotted by the battalion's padre, Francis Musgrave, who was to die himself later that day in a mortar attack.

"I am very thrilled I think it's a wonderful medal. It isn't very often my friends and family get together on this scale."

The event was organised by Major Nick Speakman from the Keep Military Museum in Dorchester, who said: "It is so important that we tell people about these men and what they went through. These awards help to bring their stories to new generations and also enable us to remember those who did not return."

Police to work with NHS Mental Health Partnership

ARRESTED people in a mental health crisis will only be kept in a police cell in exceptional circumstances.

Avon and Somerset Constabulary and the Police and Crime Commissioner have announced they will work with Avon and Wiltshire Mental Health Partnership NHS Trust (AWP) and Somerset Partnership NHS Foundation Trust to reduce the use of police custody cells as a place of safety for people in mental health crisis.

From June 1st the constabulary policy will be to limit cell use under the Mental Health Act to "exceptional circumstances" only, specifically where a person would present an unmanageable risk in a health setting.

This new policy is one of the key recommendations within the Policing and Crime Bill that went before Parliament.

It is expected to form part of a number of amendments to the Mental Health Act that could come into effect in April 2017.

Assistant Chief Constable Nikki Watson said: "It is important that people in mental health crisis receive the right care and support and at the right time.

"We have already significantly improved the way we work with our partners to help people experiencing mental health crisis.

"The introduction of street triage in Bristol and wider collaborative initiatives across the Avon and Somerset area have reduced the number of people being detained under the Mental Health Act by our officers."

Details on major road works to be presented at Monks Yard

MONKS Yard at Horton Cross, Ilminster, is one of three venues chosen to host Highways England A303/A358 upgrade information events.

Somerset County Council Cabinet Member for Highways and Transport, Councillor David Fothergill, is urging people to attend the event.

Prime Minister David Cameron announced significant upgrades to the route, linking London and the South East to the South West, as part of the Government's Roads Investment Strategy in winter 2014.

Councillor Fothergill said: "This project is a vital key to unlocking the future growth and prosperity of Somerset and the South West.

"We all know that, as well as drastically improving driver experience, it represents fantastic opportunities for our county – from generating well over 20,000 jobs, to bringing a £42billion benefit to our region's economy over 60 years.

"It has taken many years of hard lobbying by a Somerset-led partnership of local authorities to reach this point.

Wildlife Trust launch fundraising appeal for conservation projects

SOMERSET Wildlife Trust hopes for a great response to a new fundraising initiative.

The idea is that the newly-launched Somerset Nature Reserves Fund will generate money for some of the trust's most urgent conservation projects, including internationally important wetlands, rich grasslands and some of the county's most diverse and precious woodlands.

Tim Youngs, director of Land Management (pictured), explained why the fund is so important, saying: "Our reserves have an extremely important part to play in providing essential areas of secure habitat where species under threat can not only survive, but thrive.

"They also act as stepping stones within the wider landscape to ensure that Somerset as a whole remains a county as rich in nature as it was in decades gone by.

"We simply don't have the funds at present to restore priority habitats as quickly as we need to, or on a larger scale which would allow far greater movement of wildlife within and between our sites, which strengthens existing populations and enables new ones to establish themselves.

"We need additional funds to ensure that the successes we have achieved to date are future-proofed, and that we are able to build on them and fund important work in the future."

It is hoped the fund will attract contributions not only from existing trust members and conservation enthusiasts, but from the wider public who value their green spaces and understand and appreciate their value in their lives and for the next generation.

For more information on the fund, visit www.somersetwildlife.org

Any gift given to Somerset Nature Reserves Fund will go directly to wherever the need is greatest on Somerset Wildlife nature reserves, ensuring that they are kept in the best possible condition to support wildlife and conservation goals.

Sell-out for Henhayes concert

IT was a sell-out crowd when Bristol-based musical quartet The Schmoozenbergs played in The Henhayes Community Centre in Crewkerne.

It was the first concert at the centre held in association with Take Art, Somerset's enterprising arts charity, and the choice of group seemed to go down well with concert goers.

Chairman of trustees at Henhayes, Rosemary Prince, said: "This group of talented musicians, who are renowned for managing to conjure up the mood of 1930s Paris and gypsy jazz and combine this with the energy of a campfire jam session, put on a really enjoyable evening of hip swinging sounds with irresistible rhythms and lyrical melodies, which put a smile on everyone's face.

"Thirty-two people enjoyed the meal beforehand, with a further 50 people just coming along to the concert.

"The concert was held to raise the profile of the centre and also to raise much needed funds to keep the centre running.

"Various activities are held each week aimed at keeping the older generation of Crewkerne and surrounding villages fit and healthy.

"If you would like to help in the Centre by volunteering, to help out at concerts, be a waitress/waiter at our special meals or be more hands on by helping at our social groups, we would love to see you."

Health campaign encourages all to check for symptoms of cancer

PUBLIC Health England's "Be Clear on Cancer" campaign returns to the South West, with the aim of raising awareness of a key symptom for both bladder and kidney cancers – blood in pee.

Latest figures show that in the South West, 2,128 people are diagnosed with bladder and kidney cancer each year, with 1,407 men and 721 women affected. Data also reveals that approximately 852 people in the South West die from these cancers annually.

Nationally, around 17,450 people in England are diagnosed with either bladder or kidney cancer every year and blood in pee is a symptom in over half (53 per cent) of bladder cancers and almost a fifth of kidney cancers, so being aware of this is crucial.

Early diagnosis of bladder and kidney cancer increases the chances of survival. For those diagnosed at the earliest stage (stage 1) the likelihood of surviving five years or more can be as high as 84 per cent for kidney cancer and 77 per cent for bladder cancer. However, for those diagnosed at a late stage (stage 4), survival can be as low as only 10 per cent for kidney cancer and nine per cent for bladder cancer.

The "Be Clear on Cancer" blood in pee campaign previously ran nationally in 2013 and 2014.

tically significant increase in the number of bladder and kidney cancers diagnosed at pre-cancerous and early stage and a reduction in late stage diagnoses for bladder cancer.

Dr Jenny Harries, regional director for the south of England at Public Health England said: "Evidence shows that Be Clear on Cancer campaigns really do make a difference. The rise in the number of bladder and kidney cancers being picked up early is important; it is this early detection that saves lives.

"It's vital that we all do our bit to raise awareness that blood in pee could be an early sign of bladder or kidney cancer, and encourage anyone with this symptom to go to their GP.

"We know that people don't always immediately visit their doctor if they spot blood in pee, which can be for a number of reasons – some might ignore the symptoms, especially if it only happens once, or may pass the symptom off as cystitis. If you do notice blood in your pee, don't wait for it to happen again before getting it checked out, visit your GP straight away."

The campaign is aimed at men and women aged 50 and over, as between 90 and 97 per cent of bladder and kidney cancer diagnoses are in people in this age group.

It encourages anyone who notices blood in their pee, even if it's 'just the once', to visit their GP to get it checked out.

Given that people may not spot blood in their pee unless they check, this year's campaign also promotes a "look before you flush" message, particularly to women, who may be less likely to do so.

BBC journalist, radio presenter and kidney cancer survivor, Nicholas Owen, commented: "I was extremely lucky because my tumour was found early. Early diagnosis saves lives, so everyone should look out for key symptoms, like blood in your pee. Don't delay, the sooner you speak to your GP, the sooner you know what you're dealing with."

Ian Lavender, actor and star of "Dad's Army", who is a bladder cancer survivor, added: "I'm supporting this year's blood in pee campaign as a survivor of bladder cancer. It's a simple message 'look before you flush' and make sure you go and see your GP if you notice blood in your pee.

"Spread the word, someone you know might have this symptom and reminding them to get it checked could save their life – it saved mine, and I'm 70 and still happy to be working."

New equipment for play park?

IMPROVED equipment at a play area in Ilminster could be on the cards if agreed by town councillors.

Ilminster Town Council's open spaces committee was told last Tuesday by the council's senior open spaces warden, Ryan Gold, that he had received comments from a member of public about the lack of play equipment at the children's area in West Crescent.

Councillors decided that the issue would be placed on the agenda of the committee's next meeting for full discussion.

Councillor Sophie Storey said: "The play area at West Crescent has been discussed in the past, but hasn't been included in any masterplan."

Village hall given £11k boost

MERRIOTT Village Hall will see major improvements with the help of an £11,000 grant.

South Somerset District Council (SSDC) approved the application sought by Merriott Village Hall Committee.

A report prepared for members of SSDC's Area West Committee outlined the background: "Improvements to the building which will make it more energy efficient, improve the access into the hall and create an outside seating area overlooking the recreation field."

"Merriott Village Hall is run by a long established charitable trust.

"The hall is over 90 years old and located next to the recreation ground, which it shares a car park with."

It was also explained that an opportunity had arisen to make considerable improvements to the hall, which would not only create a better entrance into the building, but will also allow for the construction of an outdoor seating area overlooking the adjacent playing field.

The total cost of the project is estimated at just under £23,000.

The grant was approved unanimously.

Committee of new volunteers secures future of Chard Carnival

A NEW Chard Carnival Committee has been formed which will ensure the annual illuminated procession will roll through the town once more in October.

With nearly ten members of the committee all stepping down at the organisation's annual meeting last Thursday, there were genuine concerns that the tradition of carnival may be over in Chard, but new volunteers have now stepped forward.

Jason Baker, who is well-known within local carnival circles and Chard's very own Eclipse Carnival Club, has volunteered to act as chairman to replace Andy Chant who has stepped down.

"I'm delighted to be given the chance to serve as chairman of Chard Carnival," he said.

"Having been involved in carnival for the past few years with the club, it is a great honour to now become the new chairman of the carnival committee itself.

"I'm really looking forward to the months ahead and this year's carnival which will be held on October 8th."

Mr Baker paid tribute to outgoing chairman Mr Chant and said it would be a "tough act" to follow.

Carnivalite Doreen Toms, who has been involved with Chard Carnival for more years than she would care to remember, has decided to stay on as vice-chairman, even though she had considered stepping down.

"I just couldn't do it in the end - I had to stay on," she said.

"But I'm delighted that we are continuing and we will build towards next year which will be Chard Carnival's 50th anniversary in 2017."

First of the key roles to be filled came from Kerry Harris who agreed to take on the secretary's job from Jenny Orchard, while the treasurer's role will be led by Tina Francis with support from Michelle Young following the departure of the previous finance officer Carole Cline.

A number of other positions on the committee have been filled as well, along with a core of committee members and helpers.

The Mayor of Chard, Councillor Dave Bulmer, who is president of Chard Carnival, said he was delighted that it had been a successful meeting and that it was onwards and upwards for the carnival.

Retiring chairman Mr Chant said he wanted to thank his committee members for whom he would not have been able to do the job he did without their support.

He said that he had thoroughly enjoyed his time as chairman and raising thousands of pounds for charity and putting the smiles on the faces of people on carnival night as the procession weaved its way through the streets.

"I would like to wish the new committee all the best," he said.

"I'm so pleased to have seen the support come through the door tonight."

Committee member Martin Wale emphasised the fact that it was just a coincidence that so many people were stepping down at the same time due to various reasons.

"I wouldn't want the wrong impression going out," he stressed.

Carnival life member, Nigel Tinley, himself a former chairman, was at the meeting and said he was very pleased to see that "carnival is still going on."

"I'd like to thank everyone who has volunteered to serve on the committee," he said.

YE OLDE POPPE INN is open for business once again! The pub is newly refurbished after an electrical fault caused a fire on the premises. Open from 12pm to 12am everyday, Ye Olde Poppe Inn is the perfect place to find comfort in the cold, day or night. This quaint 15th Century public house not only offers local award winning West Country ales, but also deliciously hearty, home-cooked food which is served daily 12pm – 3pm, Monday to Saturday 5.30pm – 9pm and Sunday 5.30pm – 8pm.

Why not treat your mum this Mother's Day to great food in a beautiful setting, with 2 courses from £14.95 or 3 courses from £19.95. You even get a small token gift included in the price!

Landlady Danni took over in April 2014 and with the support of the owner, Hall & Woodhouse, has invested a substantial amount of time to bring the pub up to its full potential. The most recent of these investments can be seen before you even walk through the door, with an impressive new thatched roof. With over 13 years experience in the hospitality industry Danni prides herself on hard work and creating an inviting, friendly atmosphere for all who step foot in the door.

If you're after a real West Country drink then Ye Olde Poppe Inn is just the place to visit as they have two permanent draughts of Badger Ale, which is brewed just over the border in Dorset. Not only that but you are spoilt for choice as there is also a Seasonal one to choose!

Their facilities include a large car park and a beautiful beer garden to enjoy when the winter weather is mild, and being on the A358 the location is excellently situated for a visit when exploring the Jurassic Coast or a day out in the beautiful Somerset countryside.

AXMINSTER GARDEN MACHINERY

AXMINSTER Garden Machinery is the wholesale factory appointed dealer for the increasingly popular Walker Mowers in the South West.

Phil Roper, who has worked in the horticultural industry as a garden machinery expert for over 32 years, formed Axminster Garden Machinery in 1999. As a sales engineer and manager this background gives Phil the chance to offer all of his customers expert knowledge when either choosing either new or used equipment, and he can also give customers honest advice or recommendation.

Phil advises that the Walker Mower is up to 25% more productive than other zero turn mowers. The range offers compact machines that can get in and out of places others can't. They are easy to manoeuvre with precision steering. Due to the low centre of gravity and balanced weight distribution the Walker has excellent stability.

The operator also has a full view of the mower deck and the grass in front of and beside it.

Phil personally and carefully selects every piece of new machinery and equipment Axminster Gardens Machinery sell, and has used and tested all the machinery they offer. With a large showroom and parts department as well as a fully equipped workshop, it is possible to actually view and handle virtually every type of machinery they supply.

Axminster Garden Machinery are an independent horticultural and ground care equipment Specialist, and pride themselves on the fact that they are factory main appointed dealers, for this gives the customer peace of mind when it comes to spares or repairs or servicing. When repairing machinery, Axminster Garden Machinery firmly believes in quality engineering and design. They can provide the full backup.

Their aim is to know that the customer's needs and concerns have been met to give them quality, user-friendly equipment at the right price.

Axminster Garden Machinery are small enough to care and big enough to cope.

EDEN GARDEN, FENCING & LANDSCAPING

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see inset).

Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.a1-environmental.com

Bowen Therapy and Energy Healing

Melanie Philip

PAIN IS NATURE'S IDEA OF TOUGH LOVE!

LIKE the notion that the best love you can give addicts who are destroying themselves is to be tough about not enabling their destructive behaviours, pain is your body's version of tough love.

Pain forces you to stop what you are doing and shift your attention. It requires you to recognise when your body has been damaged or when its ability to care for itself is being overwhelmed.

It is the belief of most complementary practitioners that your body is designed to heal itself. The ability of a body to maintain its health and overcome illness is, in fact, among nature's most remarkable feats.

But You have been placed in a world that systematically interferes with this natural capacity, and your conscious involvement in your health is required if you are to truly prosper.

Pain is evolution's oldest device for getting your conscious mind involved in your body's health and safety. Pain is more than just a distress signal. It is a distress signal with teeth. It insists that you fix the problem and that if you don't know how you figure it out.

Melanie Philip has found that the Gentleness of Bowen infused with Energy Healing creates not only a strong foundation and environment for the body to repair and reset itself but also works directly with the subtle energies that give our bodies life and form the foundation of our health.

Reflexology

Reflexology is an ancient healing therapy, derived from Eastern philosophy, which focuses on stimulating "reflex points" on the feet (or hands).

The rationale for the efficacy of reflexology is believed to be the result of stimulation of the circulatory, lymphatic, nervous and energy systems which connect throughout the body and which are in a constant state of communication.

The holistic nature of reflexology therefore lends itself to help treat a wide and diverse range of disorders ranging from emotional stress to muscle and structural pain.

Precision Reflexology is a unique, gentle form of reflexology. In addition to massage and stimulation of specific points it uses a linking technique; ie two or more reflex points can be linked together increasing the power and holistic nature of the treatment.

Reflexology is suitable for people of ALL ages and there are very few contraindications. Only shoes and socks need be removed and the client lies in a special reclining chair for a deeply relaxing experience.

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and reassessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Axe Valley Counselling Anne Roberts

Relationships: Great expectations!

SO Valentine's Day has been and gone – were all those expectations of heart-felt professions of undying love and your constant desirability met by your beloved? Does the 'always and forever' still stand?

Romantic occasions and expressions of love are important moments in a relationship, but these can be expressed at any time of the year. The problem is that Valentine's Day has a huge build up, with pressure, both commercial and personal, to come up with the romantic goods.

If your relationship is generally loving and supportive, this day is just another opportunity to say 'I love you'. If, however, there are lots of problems and issues in your relationship which don't seem to get resolved, the expectations of this day become very weighty and subject to great disappointment on the one hand, and resentment on the other. Flowers, chocolates, dinner may momentarily ease problems, but they won't make them go away or be resolved.

Life isn't perfect, relationships are rarely perfect, but living with on-going disappointments, un-met expectations, anger, resentments and unhappiness is an exhausting way to live and takes its toll on mental, physical and emotional health – for the couple, children and families.

Counselling can help get your relationship back into perspective, and sort out what can and can't be changed. Leaving it too late reduces your options as the willingness, energy and investment runs out. Getting help in time can transform your relationship and, at least, clarify your choices.

If you would like help to make changes, contact me, Anne Roberts, Counselling South West, on t: 01297 301035 m: 07887 961954 email: info@couplecounsellor.co.uk: www.couplecounsellor.co.uk

Clinical Hypnotherapy

Stopping Smoking ? There is something you need to know.

E-CIGARETTES may not help you quit: Smokers using E-cigarettes are 28% less likely to ditch traditional cigarettes, So says the medical correspondent Ben Spencer who reported on the medical study published this year in the Lancet.

The study has concluded E-cigarettes do not help smokers to quit tobacco.

However these findings have become very controversial and are contrary to leading health officials in England, who have repeatedly insisted that e-cigarettes are a key tool to reduce smoking rates.

The study which was a systematic review of all available data on the issue, is the largest to date, and evaluated whether e-cigarettes assist smokers in quitting cigarettes.

Published in the Lancet Respiratory Medicine journal, it concluded that e-cigarettes do not help smokers quit, and should not be recommended for that purpose until there is solid proof that they do.

E-cigarettes contain a liquid form of nicotine that is heated into vapor to be inhaled, avoiding the harm caused by tobacco smoke.

While there is little doubt that an e-cigarette is less dangerous than a conventional cigarette, the most dangerous thing about e-cigarettes is that many keep smoking conventional cigarettes too.

The irony is, that stopping smoking is one of the main reasons adults use e-cigarettes, but on the whole it would seem the effect is less, not more, stopping.

Steven Bernstein of Yale School of Medicine, writing in a separate editorial published by The Lancet, said that despite concerns over the data and findings of the study, it did raise questions about the usefulness of e-cigarettes as a quitting aid.

The evidence for Hypnotherapy from previously satisfied clients, who have stopped smoking demonstrates that Hypnotherapy can help some people to stop, this includes stopping the use of e-cigarettes too. But is also means it can help you to change any habits that you want to change. If you are ready to stop, and ready to change a behaviour, Hypnotherapy could help you.

Traditional Acupuncture

Val Davis

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other nagging problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

Thousands of crocus carpet the lawns in February and March, with many other spring bulbs also to be seen around these award-winning gardens - all harbingers of even more glories to come throughout the year. Jonathan's Larger than Life

THE AMAZINGLY talented and versatile international singer Jonathan Veira is coming to The Beacon, Kilmington, EX13 7RF as part of his 'Larger than Life' tour. From Billy Joel to Mozart and everything in-between – nothing seems too hard for him! Ballads, blues, rock n roll, & jazz – everything sounds completely authentic and exhilarating. A mix of story telling and song will appeal to most people. When did you last see young and old rocking with laughter together? Jonathan Veira's one-man show is distinctive because you get so much more than just 'the voice'. He is a superb comic raconteur, whose anecdotal story-telling has people of all generations laughing helplessly. A naturally funny man whose engaging and enthusiastic performance leaves a lasting impression.

Book it in your diary to come to the concert at the Beacon on Friday 4th March 2016 at 7.30pm. Tickets cost just £7 and include interval refreshments. Mike's Melody Makers

ACCLAIMED jazz pianist Mike Collins has been winning rave reviews for his latest album 'And Suddenly'. The album has been described as "elegant, accomplished, a classic in the making" by London Jazz News, while the Jazzman has said "Mike Collins is a musician who will be well worth seeing live in whatever instrumental context you might find him". How lucky for jazz fans then that Mike will be playing a live gig at Ilminster Art Centre on Friday, February, February 26th!

Mike's trio comprises award-winning double bassist Ashley John Long, and Greg White on drums and for this concert the three will become four with the addition of guest saxophonist Lee Goodall. Their distinctive brand of music is melodic with an attractive rhythmical flexibility that relies on the instinctive empathy between the musicians to deepen and colour the music.

The Mike Collins Quartet plays at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, February 26th at 8pm. Tickets £14 (pre show supper £13 at 7pm, booked in advance), available from the website at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk or by calling 01460 549773.

Trio of fine folk musicians join forces for exciting new collaboration

LEVERET features three of England's finest folk musicians in an exciting new collaboration. Andy Cutting, Sam Sweeney and Rob Harbron are each regarded as masters of their instrument and are involved in numerous collaborations with a huge range of artists. Sophisticated and honest, considered and spontaneous, each performance is improvised ensuring no two shows are ever the same and each performance is a totally unique experience for the audience.

Andy Cutting, BBC Radio 2 Folk Award Winner 2008 and 2011 'Folk Musician of the Year' is an exceptional player of the melodeon, known for his work with Martin Simpson, Blowzabella, Chris Wood, June Tabor, Kate

FARADAY STOVES

FARADAY Stoves is the trading name of Faraday Heating Limited. We have been in the stove business since 1979 and have built a solid reputation for quality workmanship, excellent after sales service and fair prices.

Adding a solid fuel stove to your home will bring not only warmth and comfort to your living space but will also complement the style and design of your home. If you are concerned about your green footprint then burning wood is the most environmentally friendly way to heat your home, as wood burning is considered to be carbon neutral. We not only sell most brands of stoves we also have a full installation and repairs service so all your needs can be catered for under one roof. ENHANCED SERVICE FOR LESS WITH DISTINCTLY WESTCOUNTRY AT FORTNAM SMITH & BANWELL

THE Seaton branch of Property Sharing Expert estate agency, Fortnam Smith & Banwell has launched a special offer to owners of distinctive homes in the area, which provides the enhanced 'Distinctly Westcountry' marketing service at a lower fee.

Anyone instructing the busy agency to sell their home of distinction before 1st April will get the all-singing, all-dancing service at a discounted commission rate of just 1%.

Distinctly Westcountry is a whole suite of marketing products and activities including a glossy magazine, dedicated website and a Distinctly Westcountry London office, on Regent Street, W1, all designed for and devoted to homes of distinction in the South West; a superior service for sellers and a convenient single source of such properties for buyers.

Distinctly Westcountry is available from and features in around 85 offices throughout the Westcountry, all of which share properties with each other to reach more buyers – both in-office and online.

In addition to Fortnam Smith & Banwell's already comprehensive marketing package, expertise and first rate local knowledge, those selling a distinctive home through the highly trusted agency will secure tailor-made marketing package including an advert in the Distinctly Westcountry magazine, a professionally printed glossy brochure, a showcase on www.distinctlywestcountry.com, a prime spot in the agency's central Distinctly Westcountry window display, a listing on OnTheMarket.com and an upgrade to a premium listing on Rightmove giving your property even more prominence, and last but not least a Property of the Week editorial in the local 'View From series of newspapers – all for the agency's standard fee – reduced to 1% for new instructions before 1st April.

Properties placed for sale with Fortnam Smith & Banwell before the middle of February will also get a place in the Westcountry Property Exhibition, taking place in Fulham on Thursday 17th March.

Charlotte Reynolds, Branch Manager at Fortnam Smith & Banwell in Seaton, said: "There is currently an unbalance of supply and demand in the property market at the moment and we are in urgent need of three and four bedroom homes for proceedable buyers. With Spring in the air, the forthcoming Westcountry Property Exhibition and a minimal amount of competition for these types of property, now is an excellent time to put homes on the market and we hope our promotion on fees will encourage sellers who may be holding off till the spring to act now.

With Distinctly Westcountry, 'distinctive' doesn't necessarily mean manor houses and property estates – it also includes more modest yet unique homes and those in the most exquisite urban, rural and coastal locations, therefore, our promotion and tailor-made Distinctly Westcountry service will benefit a great number of sellers."

Fortnam Smith & Banwell has been established for a quarter century and the Seaton office opened more than 10 years ago and sits right in the heart of the pedestrianised town centre with prominent window displays. The agency's team of loyal staff has many years of specialist knowledge and experience in selling homes in the local area and over time, the office has built a reputation for its personal service, a real understanding of its clients' needs and getting sales through to completion with a constant communication stream, keeping stress levels for clients to a minimum.

For further information, honest advice from a local property specialist or to arrange a free market valuation, pop into Fortnam Smith & Banwell at 1 Vintage Courtyard, The Square in Seaton, call 01297 23939 or visit www.fsb4homes.co.uk, www.distinctlywestcountry.com or www.propertysharingexperts.com.

Ford unveils advanced, sporty and efficient new Kuga SUV with Sync 3

FORD Motor Company today revealed the new Kuga, offering customers a more technologically advanced, refined and sportier redesign of one of Europe's favourite sport utility vehicles.

The sophisticated new Kuga will offer technologies and updates to make driving simpler, safer, more enjoyable and more affordable. These include Ford's new SYNC 3 communications and entertainment system, innovative driver assistance technologies, an ergonomic and comfortable interior and a new 120PS 1.5-litre TDCi diesel engine.

The bold and sporty new Kuga debuts at Mobile World Congress in Barcelona. The new Kuga also will offer Ford's Perpendicular Parking technology that helps drivers park hands-free in spaces alongside other cars; an enhanced version of the Active City Stop collision avoidance system; and Ford's Adaptive Front Lighting System for optimised visibility in low light. Further sophisticated technologies include Hands-Free Tailgate and Ford Intelligent All Wheel Drive.

"New Kuga offers cutting-edge new features and technologies that will help drivers stay connected, comfortable, safe and stylish on the road," said Joe Bakaj, vice president, Product Development, Ford of Europe. "The sophisticated redesign has given Kuga a fresh and modern feel, while SYNC 3 enables drivers to communicate with their vehicle and connected devices in seamless ways that would have seemed impossible just a few years ago."

Ford is launching the new Kuga and the larger Edge SUV this year, after introducing an updated EcoSport last year. Ford is bolstering its SUV line-up just as it has been predicted by industry sales analyst IHS that sales in the SUV segment are poised to increase to 27 per cent of all vehicle sales in Europe by 2020.

New Kuga and the Edge are among five all-new or redesigned Ford vehicles that will compete in the SUV and crossover space in the next three years.

Kuga spearheaded the company's SUV expansion in the UK after first going on sale in 2008. 2015 sales for the full year were 32,936, up 35.2 per cent, compared with 2014. EcoSport sales also grew to 11,315 in 2015, securing 4th position in the small SUV segment.

Ford expects SUV sales to treble in the UK in 2016 compared with 2013.

"Ford is delivering a European SUV line-up that offers the stylish design, car-like dynamics, and sophisticated technologies that consumers desire," Bakaj said. "Demand for SUVs is stronger than ever, and Ford is expanding its range to offer everything from rugged models with true go-anywhere ability to sporty models designed to suit urban lifestyles."

MINI upgrades Hatch standard equipment and adds two new option packs

MINI has today announced a number of enhancements for the standard specification on MINI Hatch models and the introduction of new personalisation options available exclusively for UK drivers.

LED headlights and foglights are now included in MINI's flagship option pack, the MINI Chili Pack. Such are the savings of MINI Chili Pack that it is bought by over 50 per cent of MINI Hatch customers and 75 per cent of MINI Clubman customers.

In addition to the enhancements to the popular Chili Pack, MINI is today announcing that MINI Teleservices and MINI eCall will be standard on all MINI Hatch and MINI Clubman models from March.

Fully integrated into the car, MINI Teleservices is able to monitor the car's service condition throughout its life. If an issue is ever detected, MINI Teleservices can send this data to the driver's preferred MINI Retailer and an appointment to fix the problem can be arranged at the customer's convenience.

With MINI Teleservices, MINI Financial Services is now also able to offer significant car insurance discounts for MINI Hatch drivers with MINI FlexiMile Insurance. By using MINI Teleservices, MINI FlexiMile Insurance is able to accurately monitor the amount of miles driven. Drivers who typically achieve 6,000 miles or less in a year will qualify for a discount on MINI Car Insurance if they opt for the new MINI FlexiMile Insurance product.

Without having to rely on Bluetooth connections, MINI eCall is capable of reading the speed and angle of the car on impact, the number of airbags deployed and how many seatbelts were in use at the time. Based on this data, MINI eCall determines the severity of the impact, triggering an emergency call, where this information can be shared with the emergency services. MINI eCall has its own battery unit and speaker so can function independently of other vehicle systems in the event of a severe incident.

MINI Teleservices and MINI eCall will be offered as standard on MINI 3-door Hatch, MINI 5-door Hatch and MINI Clubman from March of this year.

In addition to the changes to standard equipment, MINI customers will also have the choice of two new option packs; MINI Tech Pack and MINI Yours Pack. Both of these packs allow drivers to customise their MINI for less, while increasing the residual value of their vehicle*.

Available on all MINI Hatch models, and the brand new MINI Convertible, the newly launched MINI Tech Pack includes MINI Head-Up-Display, a first for the small car segment. MINI Head-Up Display extends above the steering wheel, projecting the vehicle speed, media information or even satellite navigation instructions on an easy-to-read display. A rear-view reversing camera is included on models where it is not offered as standard.

MINI Head-Up Display is fully integrated with the 8.8 inch central display, also included in the Tech Pack, complete with 20g harddrive, 3D mapping and real-time traffic information. This also includes MINI Connected XL with its Journey Mate function, which allows drivers to map their journey with way points and reminders before even getting into the car.

MINI Connected is also fully compatible with Spotify, controlled directly via the MINI Controller. A 12-speaker Harman Kardon stereo system combines two under seat subwoofers with five mid-range speakers and five tweeters.

Packed full the best of technology options MINI has to offer, the Tech Pack represents a saving of 10 per cent on MINI 3-door, MINI 5-door, MINI Convertible and MINI Clubman, when compared to purchasing individually.

The MINI Yours pack has been developed exclusively for the newly launched, MINI Convertible and MINI Clubman models. The pack includes hand-stitched MINI Yours Steering Wheel in Walk Nappa leather, striking Walk Nappa leather seat upholstery with braided piping, quilted leather design and a Union Flag embroidered into the headrest. Additional interior lighting comes with a choice of three MINI Yours interior surfaces, completing the look of the MINI Yours Pack.

The all-new Audi A4 Avant – ahead in the space race

SPACE may be the final frontier, but for customers exploring the all-new, and newly available, Audi A4 Avant it is likely to be one of the first and foremost considerations. Fortunately the five-door version of What Car? Magazine's 2016 Car of the Year proves to be a star in this respect, offering the most expansive seats-up luggage capacity in the premium compact executive sector to complement the quality, technological ingenuity and optimal efficiency for which the A4 is already renowned.

The even more versatile A4 can now be ordered at prices ranging from £27,300 OTR to £40,350 OTR, and retention of these original values is likely to be another important consideration for prospective purchasers. Here, too, the A4 Avant doesn't disappoint, with leading trade guide CAP Monitor predicting that the majority of versions will achieve residual values that are either strongest in the premium compact estate class or unbeaten in the class.

As an example the A4 Avant 2.0 TDI ultra Sport 190PS – the expected best-seller in the range – is predicted to retain 40 per cent of its value after three years or 60,000 miles, ahead of its key premium sector rivals.

Class-leading luggage capacity

The all-new A4 Avant intelligently integrates a class-leading 505 litres of luggage capacity – extending to 1,510 litres with the seats folded – into a capacious interior that now affords even more head and shoulder room for front seat occupants and offers an increase in overall rear leg room compared to its predecessor.

All this can be enjoyed in remarkably hushed tones thanks to numerous aerodynamic and aeroacoustic advances, and in surroundings that exude a degree of quality and technological sophistication that far exceeds even the outgoing car, which was renowned in its own right for its outstanding fit and finish.

The Avant engine line-up will initially include a wide choice of 2.0 litre and 3.0-litre TDI engines with outputs starting from 150PS and rising to 272PS. The refined and responsive 1.4-litre TFSI petrol engine at the entry point to the A4 Saloon range will also become available to Avant customers slightly behind the first phase in April 2016.

Twelve ultra variants

As in the Saloon, two versions of the 2.0-litre TDI engine with 150PS and 190PS power a total of 12 front-wheel-driven 'ultra' variants offering up to 70.6mpg with CO2 output of as little as 104g/km – their frugality can be enjoyed in conjunction with both SE and Sport specification incorporating 17-inch alloy wheel designs.

The V6 TDI contingent starts with the 218PS version which played such a key role in securing What Car? Magazine's Car of the Year Award for the saloon – here it returns up to 64.2mpg with a 114g/km CO2 output when combined with Sport specification and front-wheel-drive.

To fully exploit the economy potential of this absolutely up-to-the-minute engine technology, the powertrain and chassis of the A4 Avant have also been completely redeveloped. The six-speed manual transmission, the seven-speed S tronic twin-clutch (now also available for front-wheel drive) and the eight-speed tiptronic have been reworked, and in the process the automatic transmissions have incorporated a fuel-saving freewheeling function.

The inherent agility of the A4 Avant with its completely new platform incorporating sophisticated five-link fully independent front and rear suspension can be amplified further by adding a more intelligent and faster-reacting evolution of quattro all-wheel-drive as an option for 2.0 TDI 190 and 3.0 TDI 218 engines. The purely mechanical system with its self-locking centre differential is also a standard feature of the 2.0 TFSI 252PS and 3.0 TDI 272PS versions.

All models are available with suspension in either a comfort-focused state of tune or with a tauter and more sporting set-up – the latter is standard for S line versions but can be 'deselected' in favour of comfort suspension at no extra cost. For even greater emphasis on dynamic ability it is also possible to specify a dynamic steering system which varies its ratio according to speed and steering angle and adaptive damper control with a 'sport' bias for all versions. Adaptive damper control with a 'comfort' set-up favouring suppleness can also be specified for all versions bar the ultra models, which are exclusively equipped with sports suspension.

Where these options are fitted, their operating characteristics are configurable via the Audi drive select adaptive dynamics system, which is a standard feature across the range. Its Comfort, Auto, Dynamic, Efficiency and Individual modes also have a bearing on the response of the throttle, the shift points of the automatic transmissions if specified and the weighting of the steering.

Driver aids

The high quota of standard fit onboard technology can also be complemented by an array of the most advanced driver aids which can take the strain out of everything from reversing out of a parking space into fast-moving crossing traffic to enduring stop-start city driving. Drivers looking to maximise economy will also appreciate the predictive efficiency assistant, which helps drivers to reduce fuel consumption by up to 10 per cent by using navigation route data to alert them to situations in which it would make sense to reduce speed, such as before bends, towns or speed limit signs that are not yet visible. The system can adapt the preselected speed to the route and the speed limits and also take over predictive control of the free-wheeling function of the automatic transmissions.

County cup dream over for Pethy Res

Robins look to break back into top two – Perry Street and Rangers through to final MIDWEEK rain forced the postponement of CHARD TOWN'S scheduled Toolstation Division One visit by Warminster Town on Wednesday evening.

Frustratingly the Robins had no scheduled fixture on Saturday and are due to return to action tomorrow (Wednesday) when CHIPPENHAM PARK are the visitors. Kick off at Zembard Lane is 7.30pm.

Manager Adam Fricker is without the services of Scott Holland due to work commitments and has named the following squad: J Hutchings, B Haines, D Hutchings, Shaun Wells-Burr, G Chlopek, L Bailey, A Martin, A Butler, L Waddy, B Symes, E Butcher, M Westlake, J Barfoot, L Woodland.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE

CHARD TOWN RESERVES 2 BEER ALBION 0
GOALS from Danny Aplin and Liam Riste earned Chard Town Reserves a premier league double over the struggling Fishermen and a jump up to 10th in the Premier Division table.

A fine penalty save by keeper Jason Hutchings was a highlight at the other end of the pitch.

The Robins' second-string are due to entertain Heavitree Utd next Saturday (3pm ko).

Down in Division Six ILMINSTER TOWN RESERVES' home game against Exwick Village was postponed.

The Blues are set to welcome fellow strugglers Silverton next Saturday (3pm).

The team are seeking a manager for their Reserve team as current boss Ken Timson's has submitted his resignation.

Club Secretary Andy Fish said: "Ken's football coaching is taking off and he is involved with Exeter City on Mondays so has not got the time really to carry on."

"With a new clubhouse, changing rooms and ground next season this is an ideal chance for the right candidate to become involved with Ilminster Town Football Club at an exciting time in the club's development."

"Working closely with the first team who play in the Somerset County League Division One West at this Standard Charter Community Club, the manager of the Reserve team will have total control of the Reserves and help the players develop during training and matches."

"Qualifications required; Minimum of Level 1 FA coaching with first aid. Full support will be given to any candidate who wishes to improve his coaching."

If interested please apply to club Secretary in writing.

GALMPTON UTD 2 AXMINSTER TOWN 1
BEN Turner gave Axminster the lead in their match at fourth-placed Galmpton but was later sent off for a foul in a bad-tempered affair.

The Tigers felt the tackle in question was a good one and that the Galmpton players had got Turner dismissed by surrounding the referee.

An Axminster spokesman said after the game: "Perhaps the most disappointing aspect was the way in which the opposition approached the game."

"If the match official is not strong enough or willing to prevent certain events on the pitch then inevitably proceedings will get out of hand."

"The hosts set their stall out in the first few seconds when a very late tackle on one of our players went unpunished by the official. From then on it was obvious what type of game this was going to be."

"To our lads credit they didn't buckle and kept their heads to play some excellent football."

Axminster are due to visit Credon United on Saturday. A hat-trick from Sam Dibbling and two goals from skipper Jon Hurford clinched a 5-0 win for Ax in the reverse fixture at Tiger way back in late September.

WINScombe 4 ILMINSTER TOWN 2

TWO late goals from Andy Whitefield was all Ilminster had to show for their efforts at Winccombe on Saturday.

But Blues' boss Darren Manley felt the score line didn't do his side justice: "We missed a couple of good chances in the first-half and trailed 2-0 at break."

"We started the second-half well but then they scored a worldy and we were three down."

The hosts added a fourth in the 70th minute while Paul Nichols struck the post from long range.

Ilminster are scheduled to visit St George Easton in Gordano on Saturday while COMBE ST NICHOLAS return to action with the visit of Portishead Town Res (both games 2.30pm ko).

SOUTH PETHERTON RES 2 TUNLEY ATH 3

SOUTH Petherton Reserves' hopes of a semi-final appearance in the county cup evaporated with defeat against Somerset League Division Two (East) strugglers Tunley Athletic.

The visitors appeared to heading for a comfortable victory up at Lightgate Lane leading 2-0 after 10 minutes. But Pethy battled back with a free-kick from Mark Nelms and a goal from keeper Simon Taylor whose long downfield punt bounced over the Tunley goalkeeper.

Pethy sounded the trumpets at the end but just failed to conjure up an equaliser.

"It was our own fault – we played poorly, only centre-back Nathan Story stood out," said Pethy boss Gordy Childs who wondered if the County FA would be casting a careful eye on the visitors' line-up. "Their keeper didn't even know what league they played in!"

BEAMINSTER 3 W & M CHINNOCK 1

WITH the Memorial Ground still waterlogged this quarter-final tie was switched to the Chinnocks' Oxleaze pitch.

A fourth minute Charlie Gay strike had The Chinnocks ahead at half-time with Beaminster reduced to 10 men after Russell Legg was shown the red card by referee Stuart Paull after a foul on Harry Manley.

George Trott thought he had made it 2-0 soon after the turnaround only for his effort to ruled out for interference.

The 10-man Rainbows battled back and equalised through Brandon Scadding before they had Murray Legg also dismissed by referee Paull for what Chinnocks' manger Matt Alford described as a 'two-footed challenge'.

Amazingly, the now heavily reduced Beaminster line-up scored twice more through Josh Hunter and John Kingston to line-up a home semi-final against last season's runners-up Shepton Beauchamp.

MISTERTON 2 HAWKCHURCH UTD 1 (AET)

A PENALTY deep into the extra time from top-scorer Scott Jennings finally saw Misterton repel the challenge of Hawkchurch United and set-up a semi-final at either Shepton Beauchamp Reserves or Merriott Rovers.

Hawkchurch shaded the first-half a Jamie Harris latched onto a long kick from keeper James Mitcham to put them 1-0 up at the turnaround.

The hosts were better after the break and Ashley Dodge volleyed a shot narrowly over the bar and Mitcham denied Scott Barry twice.

But Mizzy levelled on the hour through a deflected Jake Barry shot. MoM Harvey Saunders surged through from his central midfield berth but failed with two late efforts in normal time.

The winner came when referee Mike Dobson pointed to the spot after Hawks' defender Jack Chapple handled after falling. Jennings made no mistake with his 24th goal of the season to clinch the win.

Oddly, it is now 13 games in a concession that Hawkchurch have conceded twice in a game!

BARRY Hayne's 284th career goal provided decisive as Drimpton were pushed all the way by a plucky showing from Division Two strugglers Kingsbury.

The victory makes Drimpton clear favourites to lift their own cup for the first time in it's 29-year history.

NETHERBURY RES 3 CREWKERNE RANGERS 1

THERE was a cup shock at St Mary's where Division Three hosts Netherbury Reserves knocked out Division One outfit Crewkerne Rangers.

The Ambers surged into a 3-0 lead inside the opening 25 minutes through Alex Goodrick (2) and Ethan Holmes-Good before free-kick specialist Steve Bryant pulled one back before half time.

Netherbury will face Drimpton with a place in the final at stake.

THORNCOMBE Club's difficult season continued as their depleted reserves were thrashed by Merriott Rovers.

Rovers led 2-0 at half-time and went up through the gears after the interval, no doubt aided by the fact that the injury-stricken Thorns played the last 25 minutes with just nine men.

Jack Steer netted a hat-trick for the Rovers with Craig Gosney (2), Luke Gosney, Mike Browncey and an OG making up the final tally.

CHARD RANGERS RES 6 UPLYMERE 0

A HAT-TRICK from Craig Whittingham proved too much for visiting Uplymere Reserves as six-hit Chard Rangers Reserves recorded their biggest home win for four years and booked a place in the Bill Bailey Cup Final.

Whittingham ended up with four and Ben Butler and Jordan Warren chipped in with the others for Rangers whose last appearance in the final came in 2008-09 when they were beaten 2-0 by the now defunct Luso-Chard after a replay.

CHARD UTD AS 0 PERRY STREET RES 8

PERRY Street Reserves will however be favourites to lift the trophy for the first time in their history after thrashing hosts Chard United All Stars 8-0 at Jocelyn Park.

Dale Hutter led the way with four with the others coming from Charlie Grier, Owen Richardson, Adam Quarterley and an OG.

The Final is scheduled for Thursday, April 28th at Beaminster FC.

COMBE RES 3 SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP 4

SHEPTON Beauchamp took another step towards their first Premier Division title in 19 years but they were forced to do it the hard way at Slades Cross.

After a goal less first half, Shepton missed a couple of decent chances before Joe Simmons put Combe ahead. He then added a second soon after and Combe looked well set.

But the visitors had other ideas and surged ahead with goals from Aaron Sweet and two from Dan Smith in an eight minute purple patch.

Jamie Spurdle netted with a fine free-kick to make it 4-2 only for Cameron Barfoot to pull one back direct from a corner which deceived stand-in keeper Rich Sibbick in his first game after two years out.

FORTON RANGERS 1 CHARD UTD 2

CHARD United moved up to sixth spot thanks to goals from Ryan Mason and Ricky Anderson in the derby game at Forton. Andy Stevenson scored the hosts' consolation.

PERRY STREET 5 NETHERBURY 1

PERRY Street are firmly in the title reckoning after a nap-hand win over Netherbury at Tatworth.

Josh Chadwick successfully converted a couple of one-on-one chances to put the Mothers 2-0 up at the break.

That's how it stayed until 20 minutes from time when Chadwick set up Dan Collins.

Collins then struck twice more to round off a fine hat-trick before the Ambers scored in injury-time.

WINSHAM UTD 1 SOUTH PETHERTON 2

DON'T discount South Petherton in the title race however.

But the Magpies had to come from behind in a bruising encounter at a muddy Bakers Field.

The hosts led through a Sam Symes strike after good work from Warren Gabbidon at half-time.

But Jamie Underwood equalised with a header for his 22nd goal of the campaign and was then brought down in the area by Tony Harwood and Haydn Smith converted the resulting spot-kick.

LEAGUE NEWS

THE Somerset FA have given the Perry Street & District League league permission to extend the season in the first instance to the third Saturday in May.

The above decision was made in line with Rule 10.12 in the Handbook as 65 per cent of the fixtures will not be completed by the third Saturday in March.

If 75 per cent are not completed by second Saturday in April a further extension may be needed.

Double headers will begin when playing surfaces and daylight hours allow. Evening games will begin once the clocks go forward.

Meanwhile, unconfirmed rumours circulating in PSDL land indicate a manager of one of the Premier Division title-contenders is likely to be heading off to take the reins of a nearby Somerset League Division One (West) outfit...

More away day blues for Chard

West Dorset A 3 Chard A 0

CHARD 2nd XI came up against their suspiciously strong West Dorset counterparts for the second time this season and were comprehensively beaten at Sir John Colfox School, in a physically bruising encounter.

In the first half, the home side was frequently quicker in thought and movement off the ball.

Throughout the game, Chard were often under pressure when in possession and, in the first 35 minutes, they were particularly guilty of some wayward passing and allowing themselves to be muscled off the ball.

West Dorset went ahead from a penalty corner with a shot which skimmed the ground and beat keeper Callum Baillie for pace before he could get pads together. Although James Spurdle was outstanding in finding space to receive passes from the defence, and giving the team some momentum going forward, Chard were two goals down by the interval.

The team responded to captain Gareth Eggle's call for more commitment in the second half, matching their opponents more in the 50-50 situations.

Nick Parkinson, Tom King, Harvey Denning and substitute Murray Wheaton all did their best to find a way through West Dorset's packed defence, Spurdle and Goddard continuing their efforts where they had left off in the first half.

Not for the first time this season when playing away, the team was on the wrong end of some interesting decisions from the match officials, making the task of pulling a goal back that much harder.

As the match wore on Chard's defence found it increasingly difficult to clear its lines, West Dorset's pressing game paying dividends and winning a space of penalty corners.

Baillie bravely saved a couple of efforts and Arthur Critchley turned a goalbound penalty corner shot round the post.

But with five minutes remaining the pressure finally told and West Dorset killed off Chard's comeback efforts with their third goal.

Thanks to match sponsor: Servu Cycliflife.

Chard squad: C Baillie, A Critchley, N Liggins, S Mahoney, E Ireland-Jones, J Goddard, J Spurdle, N Parkinson, H Denning, G Eggle (capt), T King, M Wheaton.

Vital win for Chard

Chard 11 Avonmouth Old Boys 8 South West Division One

THIS was a must-win game for Chard in their bid to pull away from the relegation zone as Avonmouth are also fighting to stay in the division.

A really tight contest was widely forecast particularly as the sides had played out a 5-5 draw in the reverse fixture earlier in the season at Avonmouth when the game had also been played on a very muddy surface – which was certainly the case on Saturday when Chard were able to play their first home game since mid-December.

Once again there was little between the sides but Chard got the vital win with an excellent late penalty goal from the boot of full back John Humphrey.

Despite playing against a very strong wind, Avonmouth carved their way through a suspect looking defensive Chard midfield several times but failed to make the most of these opportunities due to some good covering by the Chard back row and some poor handling at crucial times.

The hosts conceded several penalties but, with the wind making goal kicking difficult, Avonmouth kicked for the corners.

As did Chard when they were then awarded a straight forward penalty but the kick drifted over the dead ball line and the chance for a 'catch and drive' try was lost and the have ended 0-0.

Chard took the lead when Avonmouth were penalised at a ruck and Humphrey duly slotted the resultant penalty.

But they switched off from the kick off and a mistake allowed visiting winger Andrew Morrison to pick up a loose ball and race over in the corner for an unconverted try.

The strong wind meant that Chard were pinned back in their own half for lengthy periods and it was no real surprise when they gave away a penalty which Avonmouth fly half Matt Loader kicked to give his side an 8-3 advantage.

Chard were then awarded a penalty and a good kick to touch from Chad Northcott put them in a strong attacking position.

They duly won the ball and drove a tiring Avonmouth pack towards their own line and returning former skipper ◆ HONOUR: Chard Colts Adam Moore and Joe Mainwaring represented Somerset U17s in the 12-5 defeat against Curnwall on Sunday.

Mark Parsons got the try which tied up the scores.

With time ticking away Chard were awarded a penalty and, despite kicking into a strong wind, Humphrey made no mistake and his kick clinched the narrow victory.

Chard had at last won a very tight game but, despite the terrific result, the coaches will no doubt be looking to improve on their game management in certain situations.

Next Saturday Chard have another home game when they welcome Bridgwater (2.15pm ko).

Supporters please note that the six nations games will be shown in the club house with the England v Ireland game kicking off straight after the 1st xv match v Bridgwater.

Silverspoons honour for Axe Cliff Ladies

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

IN BELOW freezing conditions and facing a northerly wind on Monday, 36 Seniors competed in the ST VALENTINE'S WALTZ competition.

Despite the adverse conditions, the sun eventually appeared, and some good scores were returned.

Roger Stone's team carded a score of two under par, 74 points which appeared to be the winning score until the final trio, led by Bryan Frost, claimed victory with an outstanding score of 76 points

Result: 1st Bryan Frost; Danny Branchflower & Danny Dowell 76 points, 2nd Roger Stone; Bob White & Barrie Heath 74, 3rd Maurice Arnold; Mike Hone & Brian Anderson 73.

Sadly, persistent rain washed out the Seniors' stableford competition on Wednesday, but improving conditions saw 34 members enter the CANADIAN GREENSOMES on Friday.

Both Alan Chance & Maurice Arnold and Dickie Hall & Peter Spencer-Farr returned scores of 38 points, but were both outdone by Ron Sutherland & Danny Dowell who amassed 46 points.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE LADIES section competitions got rained off every time they attempted the fairways.

But, to offset their disappointment, they did receive some good news from the annual Macmillan Cancer Support Silverspoons Tournament where the Axe Cliff Ladies Section achieved the highest scores out of all the competitors in England in the Ladies Strokeplay section.

There were 2015 trophy awards for the highest scores in each Section (Ladies and Mens, for the Stableford and Strokeplay competitions).

The Seniors Section played their February Medal Competition which was won by Geoff Wake (14 hc) with a score of 69.

In 2nd place on countback was N Garwood (15 hc) with 71, and in 3rd place was J Mant (19 hc) also with a score of 71.

Four 2s were carded, one each by R Grove, N Garwood, P Christmas and K Wilson.

HONITON with John Pawley

WHILST temporary greens were the order of the day the Tuesday morning men's group had clear skies and dry conditions with ground frost, but all were pleased to be playing at last.

Twent four decided to take on the course, many not having hit a ball this year.

The eventual winners, with combined score of 71 points, were Chris Street, George Blake & Ron Rogers winning on count-back. They also managed to have the only birdie in the difficult conditions, so were doubly rewarded.

Later in the day the sun shone for the 16 players in the mixed enjoying a team Stableford competition.

The format was the best two scores to count and this often brings out the best in players. It certainly did for winners Sue and Paul Ritchie with Cherry and James Liell who had a wonderful score of 86 points.

The weather took its toll on the ladies for any competition on Wednesday. I'm told they are considering the prospect of having some of their competitions in the indoor facility until the better weather arrives.

Meanwhile, nearly 50 seniors made a welcome return to competitive golf last Friday when they played in a combined Stableford/4th round Winter Eclectic competition.

Temporary greens were in play but many respectable scores were achieved in the chilly but dry conditions.

In Division One Alan Pollock (Seniors Captain) again topped the poll with 37 points while Dave Maggs followed with 35. Malcolm Matthews, Jim Wallis and Alan Dervany took the remaining places.

In Division Two Ashley Murray emerged triumphant with an impressive 38 points. John Pawley was second with 35 on count-back from Mike Delaney and Bill Phillips. Dave Lavender took the final prize.

There were no two's in the competition so a draw resulted in four members winning eight golf balls each to share with their colleagues.

Diane was equally pleased to finish 1,197th lady, 5th female over 65 in 5:29:34.

Young footballers return to action

AXMINSTER Under 7s managers took along their developing u7's to get enable some match experience at Bridport only to find the opposition was mainly their first team.

However they battled well in the middle of the pitch with good goalkeeping from Oli Loakes and Matthew Truman who scored the only goal in the 2-0 and 3-1 defeats.

Axminster Under 9s first game since December 5th was against Whipton, and not surprisingly the boys took a while to get up to speed.

After conceding the opening goal the battled back to draw 2-2.

The team's second game was against Stoke Hill who were the best side they had played last year and, after a tough first game, it was going to be a big ask.

Despite trailing 3-0 at half time they never gave in and finished with a 4-2 defeat.

The Axminster Town under 8s played two games against West Hill Wasp on the Axe Valley 3G pitch.

In the first game the Tigers started well with goals from Toby James and Alex Dixon.

The second half saw them lose there way and they went on to lose 6-2

Game two was a different story as the team learnt from two mistakes and played some neat football. Matthew Reed had a cracking game in midfield scoring a hat trick including one from a corner as did Dixon.

James also had two goals to help the Tigers win 6-1. The two teams finished off with a penalty shoot-out with all 11 players taking part, that finished 8-6 to West Hill.

A special mention for Joseph Scott and Skott Howsam playing there first games for Axminster – both did well.

Seaton under 10s beat the weather and returned to action by playing local rivals Lyme Regis on the Axe Valley 3G pitch.

The new surface proved to be very much to their liking as they ran out 7-0 winners in an impressive all round display.

Leo Gribble opened the scoring, seizing on a parry from the keeper to tuck the ball away. Seaton were playing the ball around nicely in midfield, where the central partnership of Christian Pinnock and Aaron Hale were creating havoc.

Henry Mathews, who was outstanding throughout, soon made it 2-0 with a cool close range finish. Gribble snapped up his second as he followed up a fierce shot from Harvey Green that the keeper did well to push away.

Pinnock then tucked away a penalty just before half time, after he was fouled in the area.

A few minutes into the second half, Aaron Hale added a fifth from range, which just squeezed under the keeper. The defensive work from Green and Daniel Baltrushat kept things tight at the back as Lyme threatened on the counter.

But Seaton continued to create chances with some excellent attacking play, led by George Gait and Thomas Brown.

It was Gait, who in the blustery conditions, added a goal that his all-round game deserved by scoring direct from a corner.

Hale finished the scoring when he lashed in his second with a powerful strike from outside the area, which whistled into the corner via the underside of the crossbar.
